Section 1. Overview

1.1 Purpose

This document serves as a guide for users to understand the Job Journal application and seeks to instruct users on how best to use it.

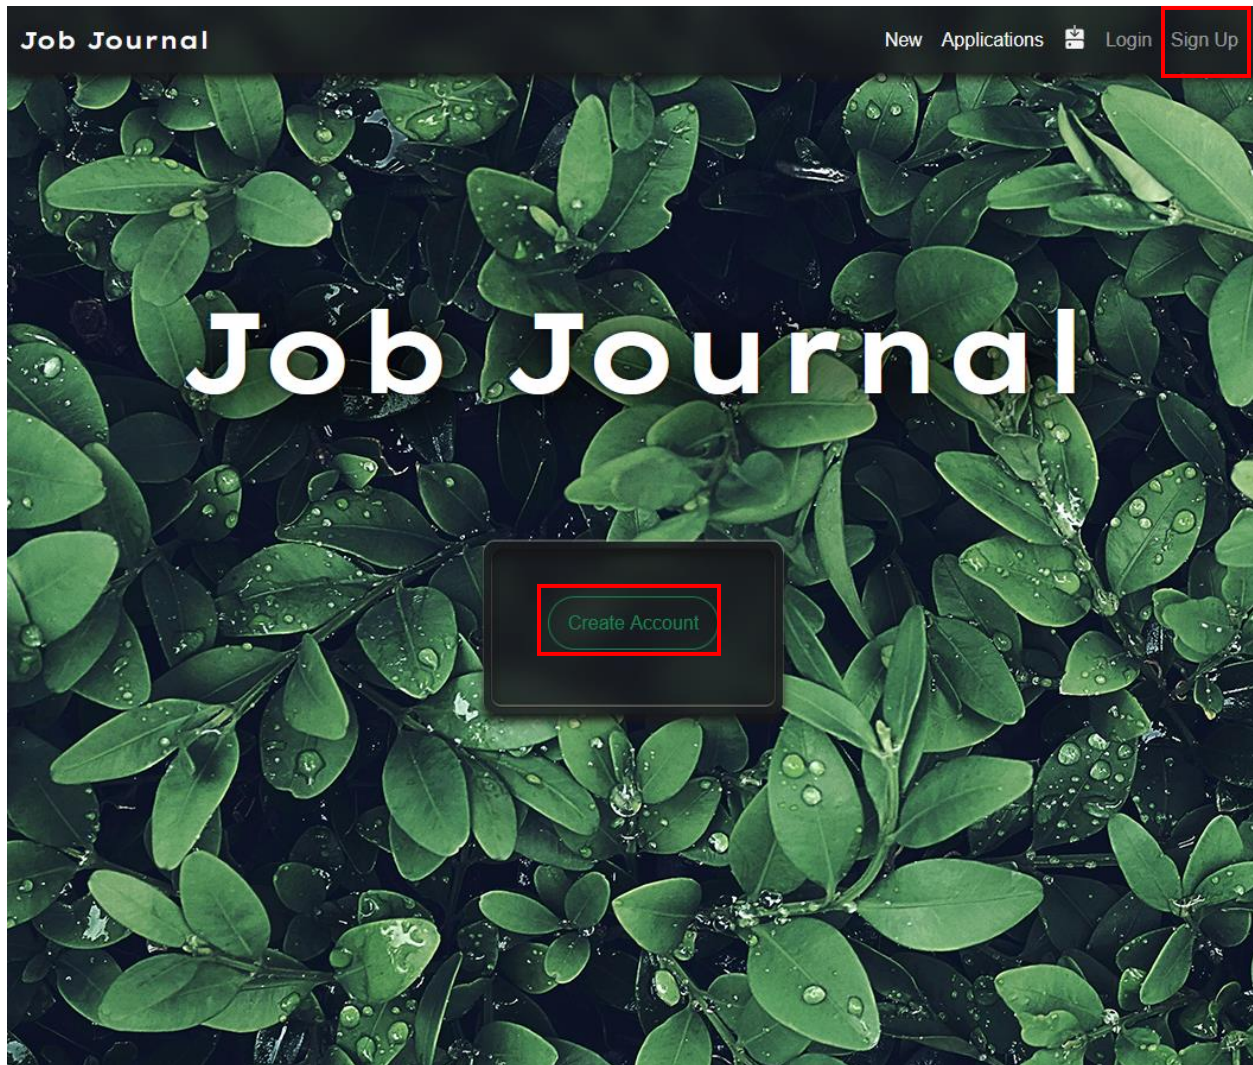

1.2 Audience

The audience for this document is the user base that will be interacting with the Job Journal on a frequent basis. This user base is determined to be people entering the workforce for the first time, and those looking to change careers.

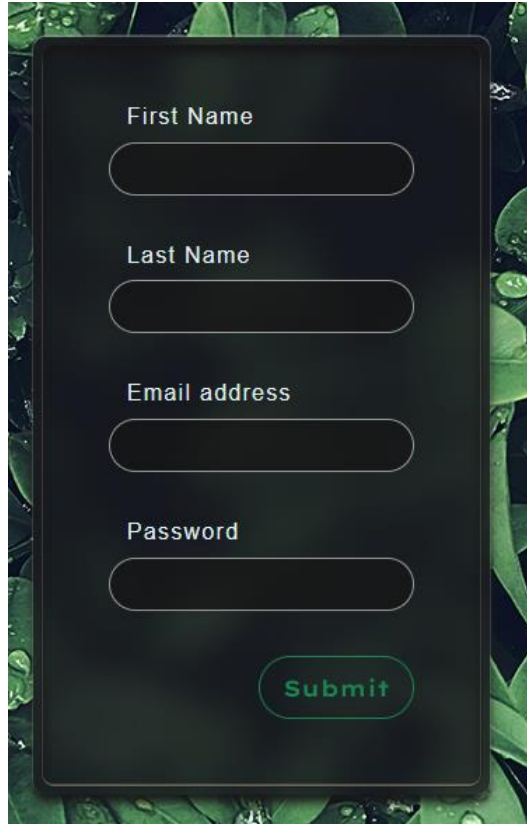

Section 2. The Job Journal

The Job Journal is a web application that seeks to give the user a place to track and document their job-hunting journey. A user can add, edit, and remove their ongoing applications. They can change the status of the application and can track applications that they plan to apply to in the near future.

Section 3. Account Creation

An account can be created from the center button on the home page, or the signup button in the top right-hand corner.

A registration form is displayed as a dark, semi-transparent overlay on a background of green leaves with water droplets. The form contains four input fields with labels: 'First Name', 'Last Name', 'Email address', and 'Password'. Each label is positioned above its corresponding rounded rectangular input field. At the bottom right of the form is a green rounded button with the word 'Submit' in white text.

If you already have an account, log in through the login button at the top right to continue where you left off.

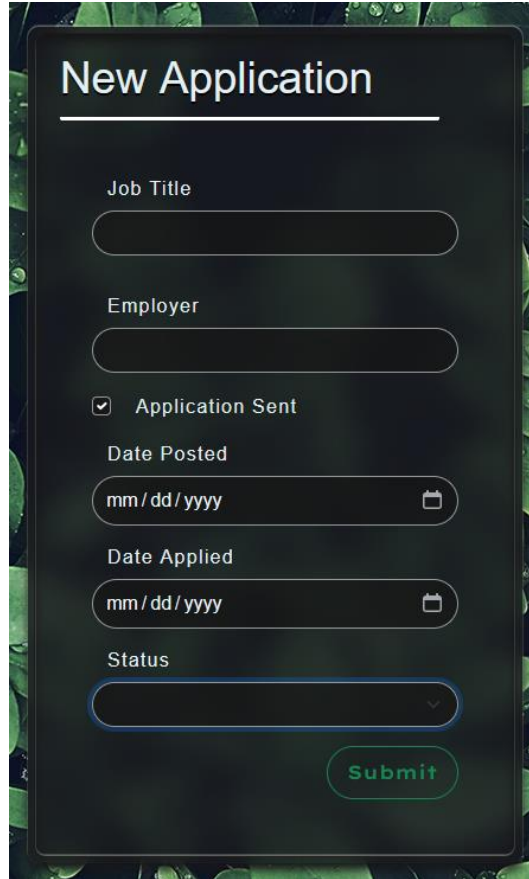

Section 4. Applications Screen

4.1. Add Application

To add an application, select the plus sign in the upper right corner. A screen will appear that will allow you to input the following:

- A. Job Listing
- B. Employer
- C. Date Posted (The date the employer posted the job listing publicly)
- D. Date Due or Date Applied (Note: this field switches depending on whether the "Application Sent" field is selected)
- E. Status of the application

4.2 View More

Select the caret icon to view more information about an application. The caret icon can be selected again to hide it. Only one application can be shown at a time, the others will automatically close.

4.3 Delete Application

The trashcan icon in the bottom left of the expanded application can be used to remove the application from the list.

4.4 Update Application

The pencil icon on the bottom right of the expanded application item can be used to edit the application. This will take you to the new application page with the fields pre-filled.

Change anything you'd like, and click submit.

Section 5. Nav Bar

5.1 New

The New button is another way to add an application, and takes you to the same page as the plus sign does on the applications page.

5.2 Applications

The applications button takes you to the application list page.

5.3 Download

The download button will allow you to save your applications as a CSV file on your PC.
